What Are Advanced Placement[®] Courses?

Advanced Placement[®]: The Basics

- The Advanced Placement Program is run by a non-profit organization, the College Board. College Board is also responsible for the PSAT and SAT tests.
- AP[®] courses are college-level courses offered in high school
- Courses reflect what is taught in top introductory college courses
- Students take AP Exams at the end of the course, measuring their mastery of college-level work
- A score of 3 or higher on an AP Exam can typically earn students college credit and/or placement into advanced courses in college

Our AP[®] Courses

The following courses are offered at GHS, taught by our own staff members:

- English: English Language and Composition (AP English III), English Literature and Composition (AP English IV)
- History and Social Sciences: European History, United States History, Psychology (new for 2016-2017!)
- Mathematics and Computer Science: Calculus AB
- Sciences: Biology

Our AP[®] Courses

Students are also able to take 22 AP courses online through the Virtual High School Collaborative, including, but not limited to:

- AP Art History
- AP Computer Science
- AP Economics
- AP Environmental Science
- AP French Language and Culture
- AP Statistics
- AP World History

AP[®]: The Benefits

AP[®]: The Benefits

- Students learn rigorous college-level content and skills
- Taking AP is valued in the college admission process
- AP courses are interesting and rewarding academic experiences
- Opportunity to earn valuable credit and placement in college

AP[®] from the College Admissions Perspective

- 85% of selective colleges and universities report that a student's AP experience favorably impacts admission decisions*
 - Colleges rank grades in college-preparatory courses and strength of curriculum as the two top factors in the admission decision
 - AP courses tell college admission officials that students are challenging themselves and preparing for the rigors they'll encounter in their college careers
- Unpublished institutional research, Crux Research Inc., March 2007*

AP[®]: Skills & Advantages that Last a Lifetime

- Taking an AP course helps students build critical thinking skills, confidence, and the essential time management and study skills needed for college success
- Nationally, research shows that students who score a 3 or higher on an AP Exam typically earn higher grade point averages in college and have higher graduation rates than their non-AP peers*

2009, The College Board, "The Relationship Between AP Exam Performance and College Outcomes"*

AP[®] Helps Students Graduate on Time & Save Money

- Students who take AP courses and exams are much more likely to complete a college degree on time.* Graduating in four years represents a significant savings on the cost of college.
- Only 1 in 4 college students completes a bachelor's degree in 4 years.
- The average cost of college for a single year is $23,410 for in-state schools (tuition, fees, room/board, misc. expenses).

AP[®] Expands Students' Options

When students earn college credit through AP Exams, their options and opportunities expand:

- Move to upper-level college courses sooner
- Pursue a double major
- Gain time to study and travel abroad

AP[®]: A More Engaging Learning Experience

AP courses challenge students to work and participate at a higher level:

- Opportunities to explore topics in depth
- More time in and out of the classroom required to complete assignments and projects
- High expectations for critical thinking, analysis, synthesis, evidence, multiple perspectives, and clear written and verbal communications

AP[®] Exams

AP[®] Exams

AP Exams are administered by schools worldwide on set dates in May each year.

- Exams are typically 2–3 hours and include:
 - Multiple-choice questions
 - Free-response items such as essays, problem solving, document-based questions and oral response
 - Your child's score on the AP exam has no bearing on their grade for the course.

AP[®] Exam Fees

- The exam fee for 2016 is $91 per exam.
- At GHS, we pay for our students to take these exams. There is no cost to your family!

Credit and Placement Opportunities

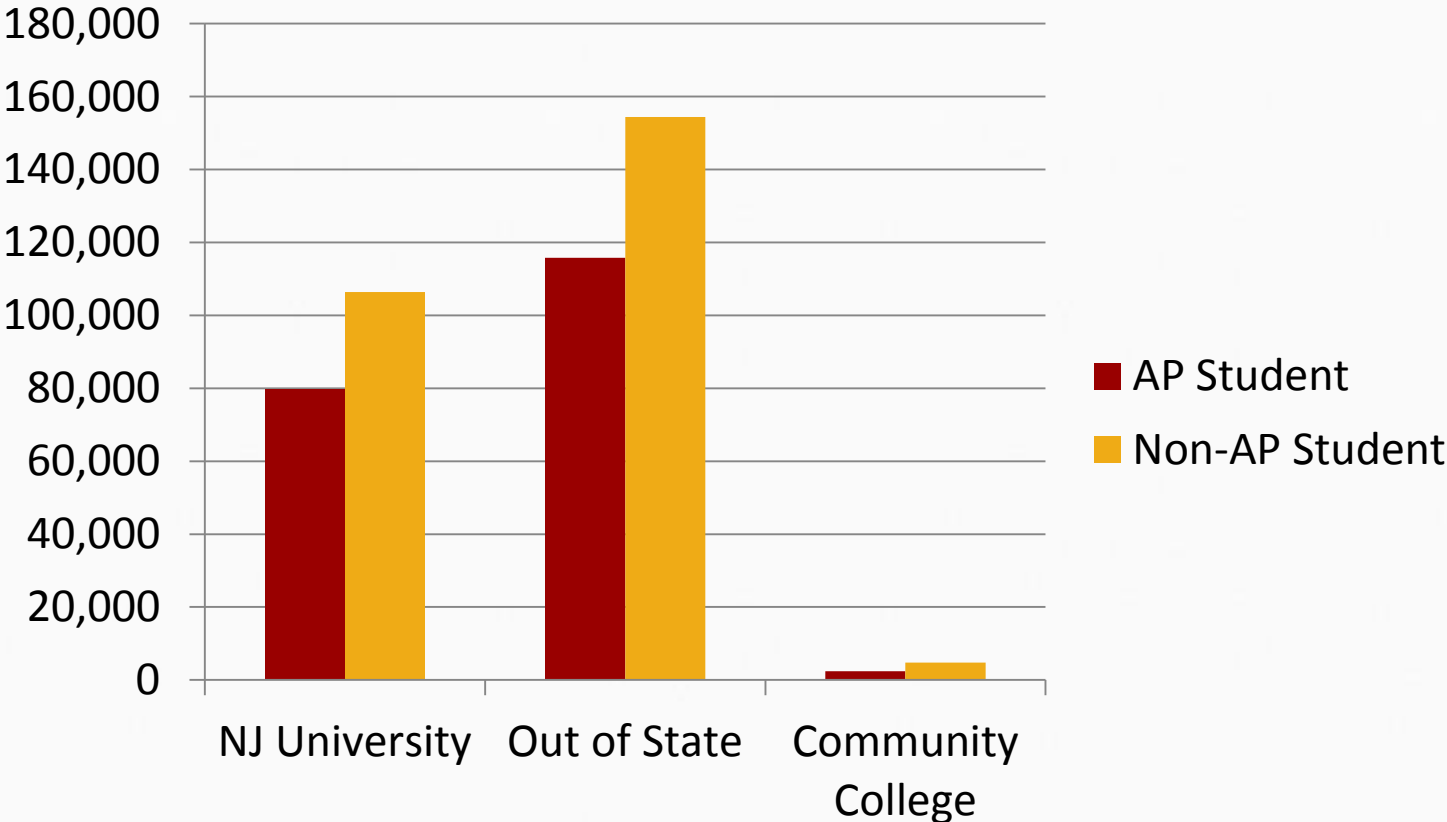

Each college and university has its own policies regarding AP[®] credit and placement. The College Board offers information about AP credit at thousands of college and universities at www.collegeboard.org/apcreditpolicy.

The screenshot shows the CollegeBoard website's AP Credit Policy Info page. The page has a blue header with the CollegeBoard logo and a search bar. Below the header, there are navigation tabs: "Transfer Board Tests", "Wait for College", "Find a College", "AP Credit Policy", and "Pay for College". The main content area is titled "AP[®] AP Credit Policy Info" and "Advanced Placement Program". It includes a search bar for "School Name" and a "Search" button. Below the search bar, there are links for "AP Credit Policy Info", "AP International Recognition", and "AP Online Registration".

- Search by school name or alphabetically
- Data for each school includes a direct link to that school's Web page detailing AP credit and placement policies
- A statement from the college or university about its AP policy

AP[®] Myths & Realities

Myth	Reality
AP courses are for students who always get good grades.	AP courses are for any students who are academically prepared and motivated to take college-level courses.
AP courses are too stressful.	It's no secret that AP courses are challenging. But the support you receive from your classmates and teachers can help you manage the work load.
I don't think I will score high enough on the AP Exam to get college credit.	You don't need to score a 5. Many colleges grant credit — and placement as well — based on a 3 or higher on an AP Exam.
Taking AP courses could hurt my GPA.	At GHS, AP courses are a top-level weighted course. (For example, a C in an AP class is roughly equivalent to a B in an Honors class or an A in a College Prep class.) Taking AP courses shows colleges that you're willing to challenge yourself academically.
I can't take AP because no one has recommended me.	If you think you're ready to take an AP course, then you're ready to advocate for yourself — just talk to a teacher or counselor.

Next Steps: Help Your Child Make the Best Choices

AP[®]: Start the Conversation

Help your child prepare to talk to a teacher or counselor about AP. Here are some questions to encourage your child to think about:

What AP course is right for me?

Before you talk to a teacher or counselor, think about what interests you:

- Which courses do you enjoy most in school? In which subjects do you excel?
- What college majors are you considering? What careers excite you?
- “AP Potential” indicator based on PSAT results

Ask your counselor or teacher the following questions:

- In which AP courses at our school am I likely to do well?
- Are there other courses that can help me succeed in AP or prepare me for college and careers?

What steps do I need to take?

- What is our school’s enrollment deadline?
- May I speak with a student who has taken an AP course?
- Are there study groups or people who can offer help if I need it?
- What can I do next to help me prepare for AP?

AP at GHS

- *GHS AP Curriculum follows nationwide lesson plans.
- *Curriculum is rigorous and unlike any class your child has taken before.
- *There is no “make-up work” or “extra credit”.
- *Student is 100% responsible for completing both independent and classroom assignments on time and to the AP standard.

Roles of Parents/Guardians of AP Students

*Review syllabi for all AP Courses with your child.

*Check MMS frequently -- assignments for AP Courses taken at GHS will be updated daily.

*Encourage and support your child. AP classes can be a very stressful and demanding time for students.
